

World's tallest residential towers

Meier-on-Rothschild, Tel Aviv, Israel

Meier-on-Rothschild, Tel Aviv, Israel

Height: 180 metres, 42 stories

Developer: Berggruen Residential

Architect: Richard Meier

Projected completion: 2014

Prices: $1.5 million up to $50 million for the largest penthouse

The star architect's biggest residential project — and the city's highest — will have white aluminum shades, a full spa with Finnish sauna, a wine cellar that doubles as a party facility, and a 25-metre-long pool. The penthouse units tout private elevators, private pools, saunas and barbecue areas and the most expensive, the “Palace in the Sky” penthouse, will be designed personally by Meier as well.
